We should ask DMCCB#17 (2019 - 05 - 29) to address them. DM-4803 is broadly part of the same grouping as the persistence format questions we addressed last week (DM-4621, DM-4629). It's less unambiguously correct than those, though: we can clearly say that FITS files ought to be documented and/or self-documenting, but I struggle to get excited about whether they contain radians or degrees.
